

Dydd Gwener 22 Mawrth

IT-To polish and publish a modern retelling of Romeo and Juliet

One dark and cold afternoon in Verona, the two families were ferociously fighting against who had the better pets in the Montagues' and Capulets' pet shops. The horrific pranks they pulled were drawing over the coal families posters, stealing the rival families pets. The guidance counsellor Escalus had enough of the pranks and the pointless feud. Escalus demanded the fighting between the two families should stop otherwise he would put the two pet shops out of order.

As the time past the Capulet held a fancy dress ball for the shops 10th anniversary, in an enormous mansion with chandeliers and a table with food as far as you could see. Tybalt was making an announcement and telling everyone how long he'd been working in the pet shop for. The anniversary turned into a ball, all the dancers had a partner except for one perfect girl Juliet, secretly Romeo gate crashed the party without anyone knowing. Juliet glanced across the room hoping to see a partner her heart beat faster as she saw a boy looking for someone without anyone with him. The whole room froze as Juliet and Romeo met. Romeo and Juliet danced in the pet shop anniversary ball all day and glanced in each others eyes with wonder.

The next week, the unknown wedding day slowly crept up and Friar Lawrence married the delighted couple Romeo and Juliet. Excitedly, Romeo was walking happily in the streets of Verona, but all of sudden, Tybalt startled Romeo and challenged him to a duel, saying "I challenge you to a duel." Romeo replied, "Tybalt I don't want to fight you." Romeo walked off. Mercutio replied to Tybalt, "I will fight you Capulet only is your up for it?" At that moment Tybalt stabbed Mercutio. When Romeo heard the news he ran to Tybalt and stabbed him. After that the Prince of Verona decided to banish Romeo forever.

Meanwhile, Juliet sped to Friar Lawrence after hearing the most horrible, life changing event; her husband had been banished from Verona and she had to marry Paris. Tempted to help his friend, Friar Lawrence began thinking of a solution to keep the two forbidden lovers together. Immediately Friar Lawrence had an idea. He put some herbs in a burger and told Juliet "If you eat this burger you will appear dead for 42 hours so you can join Romeo and run" -

"Please don't forget to message Romeo!" Juliet replied desperately.

Friar replied, "Of course my lady." Juliet ate the burger and drifted off into a deep sleep.

The next day Lady and Lord Capulet discovered that Juliet did not get on to her feet got good. Confused Lord and Lady Capulet sprinted up the golden spiral staircase to her pet filled room and stumbled across the fact that she was dead. They wailed sorrowfully for her delicate daughters death, the Capulets took Juliet down to the pet shop's cellar, at that time Balthazar, Romeo's personal pet shop assistant told Romeo that his sneaked behind the hedge and saw Juliet going down to the cellar were they kept the dead Capulets. Balthazar drove in his gold focus to Romeo as fast as a cheetah. Heart broken Romeo's assistant told Romeo that his beautiful wife was dead. Romeo slouched to the floor in sadness as his wife was dead. He declared that "If my wife is dead so will I be!" Romeo raced rapidly in his ferrari to get to the cellar. At the same time Friar sat in his house thinking about the thing he had to tell Romeo.

Romeo arrived at the cellar where Juliet lay still sleeping. Devastated Romeo cried as his bride was dead. He kissed Juliet for his final time. At that moment he scooped the poison down his throat and he fell to his death. Not long after, Juliet awoke from her deep sleep. All of a sudden her heart shattered as she saw Romeo dead. Juliet reached for the poison and started drinking realising it was empty so she got hold of the dagger and plunged it into her heart and painfully fell to the ground. After time Romeo and Juliet's bodies were discovered. The counciler wasn't surprised and blamed the two families, declaring, "For never was there a story of more woe, than that of Juliet and her Romeo."